Dive Tropex Tokoriki receives International Environmental Honors from Project AWARE

Tokoriki Island Resort, Fiji: Dive Tropex Tokoriki has been awarded an Asia Pacific Environmental Achievement Award 2009 for operating in an environmentally responsible manner and demonstrating an outstanding commitment to conserving underwater environments through education, advocacy and action. Project AWARE Foundation honours dive operators around the world who display commitment and excellence in their efforts to protect underwater environments within business operations and their community.

"The Environmental Achievement Award is about rewarding vision, excellence and pursuit of conservation. More importantly, this award ensures the enjoyment of underwater environments for future generations," said Henrik Nimb, Project AWARE Foundation Director, Asia Pacific.

It's the 3rd year in a row that Dive Tropex has been recognised for their commitment to conserving the environment having collected a Project Aware Environmental Achievement Award in 2007 and 2008. Their work in regenerating the Giant Clam population around Tokoriki, participating in Project Aware Dive Into Earth clean ups on a yearly basis and various other environmental projects contributing to their recognition as a leading environmental crusader in Fiji.

Dive Tropex operate a PADI Gold Palm 5 Star certified dive facility at Tokoriki Island Resort offering Guests the chance to experience everything from an introductory dive right up to Dive Master Certification.
